10 years of success, 10 years being a fashion symbol: Baby-G. These smart, sassy watches caused a genuine commotion when the first models entered the European market back in 1997. In honour of this anniversary, Baby-G brings back the successful designs of yesterday. And what's even more beautiful: with its lively retro look it is going to win over a lot of fans again in 2007.

Keeping its promise for 10 full years: cloth watchbands are not only extremely stylish, but also extremely practical to put on. The colourful watchbands of this anniversary models bear the proud label "Baby-G 10th Anniversary" creating the linkage to the 10th birthday of Baby-G.
